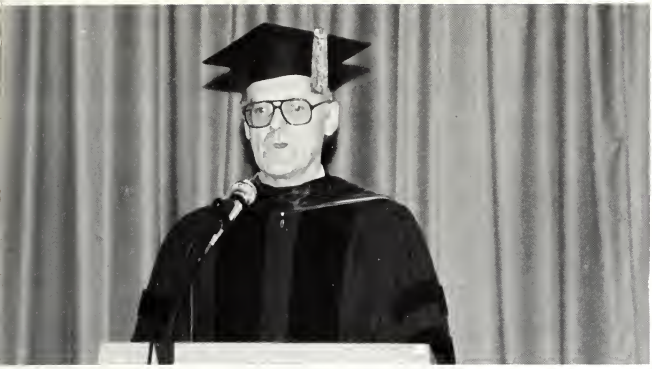
FACULTY AND STAFF



THE INAUGURATION OF

The official inauguration of Sr. Karen Kennelly took place on Thursday, March 15, 1990. Sr. Karen who became MSMC's tenth college president came to the Mount from The College of St. Catherine in Minnesota. Armed with a Doctorate in History from UC Berkley, post-Doctoral research in Spain, and years of teaching European and Latin American History, Sr. Karen was well prepared to take on the challenge of the Mount's multicultural community. When asked what the watchword for the future here at the Mount would be, Sr. Karen responded: "Creative Leadership!"

SISTER KAREN KENNELLY

"I don't know about you, but I'm sure having a good time," confides Larry Ryan to Pam Lambey.

"What accounting test tomorrow?" asks an annoyed Theresa Genova during the Activities Fair that followed Sr. Karen's inauguration.

KAX members enjoy their lunch and some nice weather during the Activities Fair.

"Oh, now I understand," replies Betty Glick.

SPRING SING 1990

This year's producer Junior Jennifer Marano and a cast and crew of about 80 people worked hard to make Spring Sing 1990 a big success. The theme for this year's show was Music! Music! Music! and was held in the Little Theatre on March 23rd and 24th. Facing obstacles such as a lack of supplies the cast and crew were resourceful enough to go on cardboard runs and even managed to get paint out of the MSMC maintenance department to get the show on the road! And what a show it was!!

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT

Joanne "Elvis" Kennedy gives the audience one of those meaningful glances.

Shhh! We're trying to get some sleep.

Showdown at the "OK Little Theatre" as Jennifer Marano aims for her least favorite teacher.

Martha Cerda performs a traditional Mexican dance.

The year's HOTTEST shoe styles at MSMC!

Jennifer and Ann Marano smile with relief knowing that Spring Sing 1990 was a big success!

"We're so happy everyone is having a good time" think Ann and Jennifer Marano.

"Excuse me?" says Lili Castellanos.

Aimee Steffes looks on at the audience with satisfaction.

Sing it Girl! Leslie Cunningham gets into the music.

Chris Kaighan feels the music.

Pianist Laurel Metzner bends down to look for her contact.

Terry Yugar expectantly waits for the audience to throw roses up on stage for her.

The final line-up.

GRAD BALL

DRESSED TO IMPRESS

Loew's Santa Monica Beach Hotel was the site of this year's Grad Ball. The Grad Ball Committee worked hard to make sure that the event was a big success.

The perfect mix of friends and good music made for a great time. Mount students always pull out all the stops when they get dressed to impress.

Mary Schaner, Pam Dupasquier, Leleeka Doonquah and Laurel Metzner show their pearly whites for the camera.

Geri Ann Dover and her husband enjoy the evening's music.

Cyn Dodd and her boyfriend get into the spirit of the evening and sing along with the music.

Cassandra Larsen and her date take time out from all the fun for a picture.

Dancing the night away are Maureen Brady and her date.

Laura Newkirk and date share a romantic Grad Ball Moment.

Ann Marano takes time out from her busy schedule to enjoy some Grad Ball fun and dancing with her boyfriend.

Rachel Martinez, Edith Arguelles and Leah Ann Caro show us how happy they are to be at Grad Ball.

Laura Martinez and Peggy Moore relax and enjoy the music with their dates.

Noel Mastandrea and her date snuggle up for the camera.

MARY'S DAY 1990

MSMC VOLLEYBALL TEAM

The team presents their coach with a shirt with all their names on it.

A few of the team members show us what can happen when you don't brush with tar-tar control Crest.

The MSMC team poses before a game. Don't they look so calm!

Hey man! Don't take my picture!

United we stand!

MSMC TENNIS TEAM

MSMC tennis team members relax and look cool before a game.

Dedication and practice are important to having a good serve.

Waiting for a smash from the other side of the court.

MSMC CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

The team is all smiles before the going gets tough in the district championships.

STUDENT LIFE AT MSMC

The women of MSMC have great spirit and a lot of energy. Although they like to have fun and good times just like anybody else, they also have a serious side to them as well. Concerned with saving the earth's environment, humane treatment of animals and donating to the Red Cross blood drives to just name a few, the students are very aware of the important issues of today. When the students of MSMC decide to get behind a cause there is no stopping the Mount! And so these next pages are dedicated to showing the diversity of MSMC students.

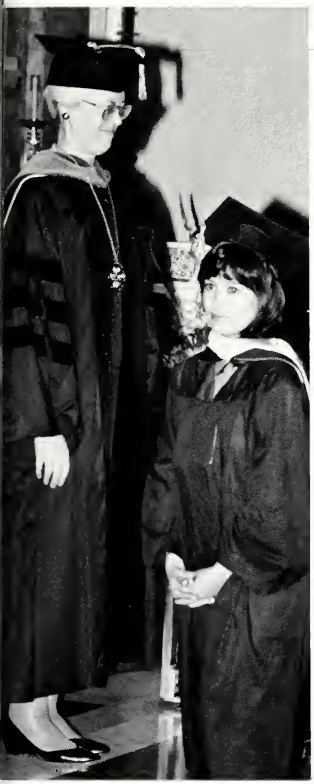
BACCALAUREATE MASS 1990

The Baccalaureate Mass was celebrated on May 11, 1990. Getting to wear their gowns for the first time in public, the seniors were filled with nervous energy as they readied themselves in line. The Mass was celebrated by Bishop Carl Fisher and Father O'Brian. Bishop Fisher gave a wonderfully entertaining and inspiring homil that all the seniors could take to hear and carry on with them forever, onc having left the Mount. The beauty of th Carondelet Chapel added a touch o elegance to this special mass.



COMMENCEMENT 1990

The Commencement ceremony took place this year on May 12, 1990. The circle was beautifully decorated in colorful banners and along with sunny weather, marker how special this graduation day was. With great energy the Class of 1990 will go out into the world and do great things, each in their own special way. As each graduate walked up to receive their diploma, they were able to have their moment in the spotlight. This was the day they received the much deserved praise and recognition after all the hard work it took for them to reach graduation.
